WHAT'S HOT!

1 / EXOTIC INFLUENCE

The luxe Spolarium two-drawer side table by Celestina Maynila New York, sheathed in denim-blue Java lizard skin, is sure to add a dash of the exotic to any room. Handmade in the Philippines of gemelina wood, it measures 31" l. x 22" h. x 12" w. and costs $2,590 at Barneys New York; call 888-822-7639.

2 / FIRED UP

Missoni Home translates its signature flame-stitch fashion motif onto porcelain with the new Fiamma collection for Richard Ginori 1735. The plate and bowl, which gleam with 24K gold, cost $230 and $450, respectively. Available at Michael C. Fina; call 800-289-3462.

3 / VIENNESE DELICACY

Lobmeyr's ethereally thin hand-blown Alpha nesting bowls, designed in 1952 by Hans Harald Rath, now come in six hues, including light green. The collection comprises a cocktail tumbler, $57; water tumbler, $74; flower bowl, $113; and salad bowl, $189. Visit lobmeyr.at.

4 / SOUND CHECK

Tivoli Audio marks its tenth anniversary with the Model 10 clock radio. The 7.8"-h. multitasker delivers booming sound and features dual alarms and an input for iPods. Prices start at $200; in high-gloss frost white (shown) it costs $250. Call 877-297-9479 or go to tivoliaudio.com.

5 / ROCK STEADY

Cassina has introduced the Canapo rocking chair, which was designed by architect Franco Albini in 1945 but never produced. The ash or walnut frame, 64.2" l. x 28.3" h. x 24.4" w., is available in several finishes and is topped with removable fabric or leather cushions. Prices start at $7,670. Call 800-770-3568 or go to cassinausa.com.
