

THE WORLD'S BEST-SELLING HOMES MAGAZINE

JANUARY 2017 $3.80

UK
EDITION

21
YEARS
STYLE
DESIGN

ELLE DECORATION

The new minimal

Inspiring homes that do more with less

INSIDER GUIDE

Last-minute Christmas shopping made easy

WINTER READY?

20 ideas for surviving the season in style

EASY ELEGANCE

27 classic accessories that will never date

STORAGE SPECIAL

CLUTTER-BUSTING IDEAS FOR EVERY SPACE AND BUDGET

PLUS THE BEST NEW SIDEBOARDS, BOOKCASES AND CHESTS OF DRAWERS

FINE WEAVE

Chunky knits are in vogue this winter – and that applies to home furnishings, too. Find hand-knitted cotton storage baskets from Scandi brand Ferm Living at the new 95% Danish showroom.

Knitted baskets by Ferm Living, from £49.45 each, 95% Danish, Oxo Tower Wharf, Barge House Street, South Bank, London SE1 (95percentdanish.com)

Hint of a tint We're not sure if it's the wafer-thin crystal or the soft watercolour-esque hues, but these reissued tumblers by Hans Harald Rath for Austrian brand Lobmeyr, originally created in 1952, are all the more precious for their delicacy.

'Alpha Drinking Set No.267' mouth-blown crystal tumblers, approx £70 each, Vessel Gallery (vesselgallery.com)

Stop press! Check out these hot online emporiums: vintageseekers.com for pristine vintage pieces; Thorsten van Elten's new site, theo-theo.com, for offbeat gifts; and loveyourhomeforless.com for beautiful, practical modern furniture.

BEST IN SHOW

Ligne Roset's east London showroom features an inspiring, evolving display of new French design, courtesy of its creative consultant Francesca Avossa. These fabulously curvy armchairs by Eric Jourdan are among the stars of the show.

'Harry' armchairs in Divina Blue and Harald Green, from £1,719, Ligne Roset, 37-39 Commercial Road, London E1 (ligne-roset-city.co.uk)

HOT POTS

It's always thrilling to chance upon a vintage adornment – and thanks to Cassandra Ellis, you don't have to rifle endlessly in junk shops to achieve it. These earthy vases are part of its range of restored, individually selected ceramics. We love!

Vintage ceramic vases, from £20 each, Cassandra Ellis (cassandraellis.co.uk)

