

FEBRUARY 2019 USA $9.50 CAN $9.95

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

HANDMADE TALES

From a madly marbled Swedish manor to Moroccan rugs recycled from refuse

SIPPER CLUB

From relaxed family brunches to formal dinners, you need glasses for classes (of party). That's why picnic beakers here clink shoulders with footed goblets and crystal tumblers. Giving them all due lip-service, Max Egger says chin chin. Photography: Anders Gramer

1 'ST Teic', £55 approx, Bollenglass Design. 2 'Pearl', £45 for four, LSA. 3 'Roxane', £225, Lalique. 4 'Boston', by Villeroy & Boch, £14.90, Selfridges. 5 'Madison', by William Yeoward, £54, Amara. 6 Harlequin set of 'Nestor' coloured wine glasses, c1950, by Val St Lambert, £2,800 approx for 12, Guinevere. 7 'Wine Therapy', by Baccarat, £795 for six; 8 'Wine Therapy', by Baccarat, £795 for six; both Harrods. 9 'Venice' white wine glass, £995, Asprey. 10 'Würfelschliff Pokal', by Josef Hoffmann for Lobmeyr, from £1,300 approx, Neue Galerie. 'Lys' plates, by Duralex, from £17.99 for six, Glass Co. All prices include VAT. For suppliers' details see Address Book >

