

Autumn/Winter 2016

MoMA
Design Store

Discover MoMA Design Store

'Tis the season for gifting. Here you'll find designs that are fun and functional, beautiful and innovative—from iconic classics to transformative technologies. We like to think of them as extraordinary objects that elevate the everyday.

MoMA has believed in and showcased good design since 1929. So each piece is carefully considered by our curators before it makes it into your home.

With this in mind, we invite you to discover holiday gift ideas at our newly renovated Design Store on 53rd Street, as well as our stores in the Museum and Soho, and on store.moma.org.

Enjoy exploring our new catalog and discovering inspiring and innovative holiday gifts for everyone on your list.

When you shop at MoMA you support the Museum's exhibitions and educational programs.

1

3

4

5

2

1. Stoff Candle Holder NEW EXCLUSIVE
Werner Stoff, 1960s Shine some (candle) light on this icon of 1960s Danish design. Combine and stack to create endless beautiful, sculptural shapes. Multiples shown, sold individually. Custom 7" candles sold separately. Each: 2.75h x 4w x 3.75"d
#120224 Candle Holder $38 each/Members $34.20
#120225 Box of 12 Candles $10/Members $9

2. Hideout Chair NEW EXCLUSIVE
Front, 2015 Created by Swedish design group Front, this steam-bent solid beech chair is as welcoming as it is chic. Woven caned sides create a semi-private experience as you slip into the wide and uber-comfortable upholstered seat. Front is featured in MoMA's collection. Made in Italy. 46h x 30w x 32"d Seat height: 17.75" #120195 $4,800/Members $4,320 (+$150 S+H)

3. Punched Bowl NEW EXCLUSIVE
Piet Hein Eek, 2014 While experimenting with ideas for a design commission, Piet Hein Eek used an industrial machine to perforate and shape a precious sheet of metal into a functional object. The result is recreated here in these one-of-a-kind stainless-steel bowls. Made in the Netherlands. 15.75h x 20w x 12"d
#120143 $225/Members $202.50

4. Collo-Alto Flatware NEW Inga Sempé, 2015 The slender neck of this five-piece set gives a particular lightness to this flatware collection, whose distinctive aspect is the contrast between curved and straight lines and the combination of large and narrow volumes. Made by Alessi, a manufacturer featured in MoMA's collection. Mirror-polished stainless steel. 5.25-8.25"l
#119711 $80/Members $72

5. Gondola Serving Knife NEW EXCLUSIVE Barbro Berlin, 2014 A modernist tool, this all-purpose serving knife is meant to bring a sense of ritual to the dining table. Made in Sweden. Steel with brass plating. 11.5l x 1.5"w
#119745 $65/Members $58.50

6. Optic Table Tile Coasters NEW EXCLUSIVE Bower, 2015 This set of six beech wood and cork coasters feature a graphic black and white design which can be used separately or artfully arranged to form a tiled trivet. 3.5l x 3.25"w
#118816 $18/Members $16.20

7. Series B Crystal Service NEW MoMA COLLECTION Josef Hoffmann, 1912 This glassware embodies Hoffmann's penchant for austere black-and-white design, with frosted crystal adorned with a sophisticated alternating pattern of hand-painted black lines. This timeless design is featured in MoMA's collection. Made in Austria. Sold individually.
#119683 Wine Glass: 5.25h x 2.5"diam. 4oz. $285/Members $256.50
#119684 Champagne Glass: 4.75h x 4"diam. 4.7oz. $295/Members $265.50
#119682 Wine Decanter: 8.5h x 4.25"diam. 27oz. $1,330/Members $1,197

8. Oslo Ice-Cream Spoons NEW EXCLUSIVE Miguel Peixoto, 2010 These multicolored, iodized ice cream spoons look sleek, but they're not just for show—their squared-off ends are custom-designed for optimal scooping. Made in Portugal. PVD-coated stainless steel. Set of six. 5.25"l
#119693 $38/Members $34.20

6

7

8